i-OPENING INFORMATION

Adults have been telling stories of Goldilocks to children for hundreds of years. One of the early stories had a very different ending than the one we know; it ended like so:

After the surprise of finding her in their home, the Bear family welcomed Goldilocks and offer her to join them for dinner. They spent the day playing. At the end of the day, the Bear family accompanied Goldilocks to her house where she lived with her grandma.

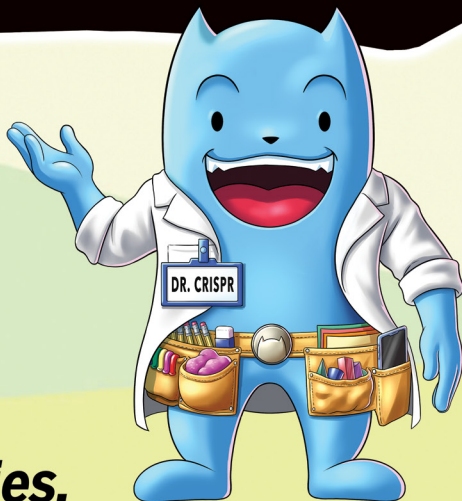

The Bear family decided to stay at grandma's house. Goldilocks taught them to clean and dust and do the housework. From then on they lived and played together as best friends.
